

The Names of God

The Names of God reveal His nature and character. With each disclosure of His Name, God reveals something unique about Himself. In this way, we discover how to relate to Him and others in a life-giving manner.

As we meditate upon His Names, we discover more about who we are by design, how to maintain healthy relationships with others, and how to live fulfilled lives.

Today, you will find a few resources to help you meditate more on the power of God's Name and the qualities of His character. This is only a glimpse.

Click on any of the icons below for your free downloads. Use them yourself or even print copies for your family or church group. Enjoy!

Infographic

Infographics display in point form the main points of a topic. "Knowing God" illustrates the five main benefits to studying His Names.

Bookmark

All readers, young and old, need bookmarks. Grab crayons, markers, watercolor pencils, or whatever other writing tool you design and personalize your bookmark.

Coloring Page

Turning on the artistic side of the brain reduces stress and helps jump back into "work mode" with greater enthusiasm. Studies confirm that coloring actually improves brain function and motor skills.

Take full liberty to print off this sampling of new coloring pages, focusing on the Names of God. Copyright is reserved, so please don't alter images in any way or sell them to others. Free to you! Freely pass them on. Woohoo!

Other

If you feel like going deeper, check out a recent post which may inspire you. Or perhaps you may be interested in watching a sermon on two of God's Names --- The Lord my Shepherd and the Lord Who Makes us Holy.